TOM CORBIN – KCAC'S FEATURED ARTIST

"Walking Female" by local sculptor and long time KCAC friend, Tom Corbin, is the 2018 Art Auction Sealed Bid piece.

We have had the pleasure of watching Tom's career and studio steadily grow from the very beginning when his space was located upstairs from the KCAC gallery to his current fabulous old firehouse on Southwest Boulevard.

Tom's sculptures are the perfect addition to anyone's art collection and a must have for those collectors focusing on Kansas City artists.

Tom's works are included in the individual collections of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hanks, Nicole Kidman, Danielle Steel and the late Frank Sinatra. Public installation sites include the United Nations, The Kauffman Foundation, the Firefighter's Memorial, the Children's Fountain, University of Oregon and Florida State University. In addition to important public and private collections, Tom's works have found their way onto the sets of some major motion pictures, among them True Lies, A Perfect Murder, It's Complicated and Transformers. Along with numerous accolades and awards, Tom's work simply speaks for itself. Stunning.

We are thrilled to be able to include Tom's beautiful work in the 35th Annual Art Auction and hopefully for you to be able to include this piece in your personal art collection.
